GDL WORKS!

MISSOURI'S GDL LAW IS A 3-STEP LICENSING SYSTEM

- 1 INSTRUCTION PERMIT
- 2 INTERMEDIATE LICENSURE
- 3 FULL LICENSURE

The Graduated Driver License (GDL) law is the single most effective tool in reducing teen driver crashes. It limits the highest risk factors for teens including driving at night, with multiple passengers, distracted and unbelted.

Parents make the First Impact by enforcing GDL restrictions and limiting exposure to high-risk situations. Most parents aren't familiar with the GDL law.

WE HAVE A SOLUTION
BUT NEED YOUR HELP!

First impact can help

First Impact is a 90-minute evidence-based traffic safety program that educates parents about Missouri's GDL law. The goal of First Impact is to reduce new driver crashes and the resulting injuries and fatalities by increasing parents' awareness and enforcement of Missouri's GDL law.

Objectives of the program are to increase:

- Awareness of teen driving risks
- Understanding of Missouri's GDL law
- GDL monitoring and enforcement at home
- Importance of being a positive role model

First Impact provides the tools parents need to monitor, coach and support their new teen driver. First Impact features a video and a discussion to promote the importance of parents and teens working together to reduce teen crashes, injuries and fatalities.

Ensuring parents understand the risks and responsibilities associated with driving is essential in preventing teen driving tragedies.

The program is delivered by trained facilitators who coach parents by presenting key facts and proven strategies to help parents lower their teens' crash risk by utilizing the Missouri GDL law.

This statewide program is available free of charge.

What is the Graduated Driver License (GDL) law?

Missouri's Graduated Driver License law requires that all first-time drivers between 15 and 18 years old complete a period of driving with a licensed driver (instruction permit) and restricted driving (intermediate license) before getting a full driver license.

- ✓ If the permit holder is under age 16, the accompanying licensed driver must be a qualified person, grandparent, qualified driving instructor, a person who is at least 25 years of age who has been licensed for a minimum of 3 years and has received written permission from the parent or legal guardian, or in case of disability of the parent, grandparent, or guardian, their designee.
- ✓ At age 16 the driver may apply for an intermediate license. The intermediate license allows the driver to drive alone except during a late night curfew (1:00 a.m. to 5:00 a.m.). The driver and passengers must use seat belts, be free of alcohol and drugs, and obey the traffic laws.
- ✓ At age 18, or within the 30 days immediately preceding his/her 18th birthday, the intermediate license holder may apply for a full driver license.

Definitions:
 Immediate family shall include parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, stepbrothers, stepsisters, and adopted or foster children residing in the driver's household. Parent shall include a foster parent, stepparent or adoptive parent. Grandparent shall include a foster grandparent, step-grandparent or adoptive grandparent.

Questions & Answers

Can the test form I receive from the Missouri State Highway Patrol examiner be used as an instruction permit?

No, you must submit the exam form to the license office to apply for a temporary instruction permit. Your six month permit period will be calculated from the issue date of the temporary instruction permit, not the exam form.

If I am 16 and driving on an instruction permit, may I drive with my 17-year-old friend who has an intermediate license?

No. If you are driving on an instruction permit at age 16, the person beside you when you are driving must be at least 21 years old and have a valid driver license. If the adult driver has restrictions on his/her driving, then those restrictions must be followed when accompanying the teen driver.

Will the time that I drive with a qualified driver training instructor count towards the 40 hour behind-the-wheel requirement for an intermediate license?

Yes. When you apply for your intermediate license, a qualified person or grandparent must accompany you to the contract office and sign your application, stating that you have completed 40 hours of behind-the-wheel driver training while operating on an instruction permit. This 40 hours may also include any time that you have operated a vehicle with a qualified driver training instructor.

If I have an intermediate license, may I drive around town with my friends without an adult in the vehicle?

For the first six months, you cannot drive with more than one passenger who is under the age of nineteen who is not a member of your immediate family. After the first six months, you cannot operate a motor vehicle with more than three passengers who are under 19 years old and who are not members of your immediate family. Everyone in the vehicle must wear seat belts and obey the curfew (1:00 a.m.-5:00 a.m.). Please refer to the chart on the reverse side of this brochure for more information about the curfew.

If I am under age 18 and I have a full license from another state when I move to Missouri, what type of license will I get?

If you are eligible to receive a Missouri driver license, an intermediate license will be issued. However, if you apply within the 30 days immediately preceding your 18th birthday, a full driver license may be obtained.

Who must accompany me to the contract office to get my instruction permit and intermediate license?

In order for you to obtain the instruction permit, a qualified person must accompany you to the contract office and sign your application stating that he or she will provide you with at least 40 hours of behind-the-wheel driver training.

In order for you to obtain the intermediate license, a qualified person or grandparent must accompany you to the contract office and sign your application stating that you have received 40 hours of behind-the-wheel driver training.

If my intermediate license expires on the weekend or holiday, can I still drive?

If your intermediate license expires on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you may continue to drive for a period of five business days. This will allow you to legally drive to your local contract office to renew your license.

Is it illegal to drive while sending, reading or writing a text message?

Yes, if you are 21 years of age or younger it is illegal for you to drive while sending, reading or writing a text or electronic message by means of a hand-held electronic wireless communication device. 2 points will be assessed on the driving record for each conviction. (Refer to Section 304.820)
